Deathklaat

Six Feet Under

I'm going straight to Hell
To burn in flames with the Devil
Fuck the church and that Christian shit
My tombstone's carved with a 666I don't care about the lies that you preach
Alive to live, not to believe
In a God that I cannot seeAfter death
Enter life
In the grave
To never wakeAfter death
Enter life
In the grave
Into the darknessAs flesh turns and rots
The blood in my veins does clot
I'll be smiling as I decompose
As the rats eat my skin and boneNo escape when death comes to call
Inside my skull maggots still crawl
From the coffin your world looks so small
The Reaper awaits us allThis is the deathklaat
This is the deathklaat
This is the deathklaatThis is the deathklaat
This is the deathklaat
This is the deathklaatAfter death
Enter life
In the grave
Into the dark
