Wishes

Slut

think i know it much too late wish i wasn so afraid going under slowly day by day... think it darker than before think i closer to the floor & now the street so cold as cold as you i wish you all the best girl ause it me who has to stay, wish you all the best girl, now it you to fade away i wish it was a test girl a little kiss a small hello, youe better than the rest girl, but sometimes wishes melt away like falling snow
