Superman's Daughter

Sawyer Brown

She was the most unusual girl I'd met
She stole my heart and she took my breath
She had these certain ways I did not understand
And when I made my move to execute my plan
She was leading me like a lamb to a slaughter
You don't mess around with Superman's daughterSuperman's daughter got looks that kill
She got x-ray eyes, she got a heart of steel
When she fell in love, I never would have caught her
If I'd only known she was Superman's daughterShe is soft to touch, she is hard to hold
She is one minute hot, she is one minute cold
But it's too late, Clark, for me to turn back now
She's got me heart over mind and I'm wondering how
She could do anything shy of walkin' on water
The girl must be Superman's daughterSuperman's daughter got looks that kill
She got x-ray eyes, she got a heart of steel
When she fell in love, I never would have caught her
If I'd only known she was Superman's daughter
