Dumb Pop Song

Lucky Boys Confusion

I'm gonna steal your girlfriend I went to my boys house I met his sister I knew right then I had to get with her She had a boyfriend he wasn't worthy His friends all say he's a wannabe junkie I know that this might be wrong but I'm gonna steal your girlfriend I know I will steal your girlfriend I don't really know her; her boyfriend's richer But I find her smile so irresistible She's a little younger, but I like that Her brother thinks that I got a chance We call her the gank queen And I can deal with her mood swings She thinks animal are vibrating It's just a stupid piece of technology I know this'll be a big challenge but I'm gonna steal your girlfriend I'm gonna steal your bitch
