Push on for the Dawn

Corinne Bailey Rae

Sometimes when I close my eyes
I see your face and I see mine
Warm as the sun
I donâ€™t know if Iâ€™m waking or sleeping
I donâ€™t know if Iâ€™m thinking or dreaming
I just follow the sun
Sometimes when Iâ€™m in the dark
The thought of you is a tiny spark
Keeps me walking in the dark
Push on for the dawn

The night is silent
But dawn comes blazing in
It blooms like a flower
It burns to the heart of me

And everyday is our adventure
Keep pushing on
For everyday I want to thank you
Youâ€™re pushing me on
Cause you bring me joy

Everyday is a new beginning
Everyday is a chance to start again
Till time descends like a curtain, calling: â€œItâ€™s the endâ€•

Sometimes when the pain is gone
We move really slow just to carry on
You can go ahead if you want to
But Iâ€™ll be a river
My head in the mountains
My feet on the shore

Midnight when the lake is black
The moon and stars are reflected back
Into the night sky
So is my life, Lord
Reflected back to you

The life that was never mine

A move on the water
A whisper into the night

Everyday is our adventure
Keep pushing on
For everyday I want to thank you
Youâ€™re pushing me on
Cause you bring me joy

Everyday is a new beginning
Everyday is a chance to start again
Till time descends like a curtain calling: â€œItâ€™s the endâ€•
When love unveils its heart and shows you it is friend
When all I want to do is be dancing again

Keep pushing on
