The City Sleeps In Flames

Scary Kids Scaring Kids

The empire will fall like they planned on
Can we even last through the night?
We watch as the skyscrapers crumble
Under the burning blue sky that blinds our eyesThis is our last chance to make things right
A world lost forever, tonight, tonight, tonight, tonight
Let's try to find a place to sleep
It's going on days, that we've been awake
A sadness that I've never seen
I said your name and you looked the other wayBecause these are my last words
And this is my last breath
I'd give you everything
If there was something leftI have nothing left to prove
And I will live with my regrets
I'd give you everything
If there was something leftThe disconnecting count of days are fading away
The lives that we made
Tear drops will spill from your blue eyesIntentions were wrong, I apologize
The empire is falling like they planned on
And we lost it all, the city sleeps in flamesLost time
Everything's gonna be fine, right?
Everything's gonna be fine, right?
Everything's gonna be fine, right?
I can't find a way to live in this lifeThe empire will fall like they planned on
Can we even last through the night?
We watch as the skyscrapers crumble
Under the burning blue sky that blinds our eyesBecause these are my last words
And this is my last breath
I'd give you everything
If there was something leftI've got nothing left to prove
And I will live with my regrets
I'd give you everything
If there was something leftBecause these are my last words
And this is my last breath
I'd give you everything
But I've got nothing left
