You Will Never Leave Me

Sidewalk Prophets

You may find me in the midnight
Fallen down upon my knees
Or riding out another storm
Praying for some peace
Even when I feel alone
Jesus, this I know
You will never leave me
You will always be the one
Who calms the raging sea
You will never leave me
You will always be the one
Who s holding onto me
You may lead me to the desert
Where I m empty and afraid
Wandering this nothingness
Thirsting for the rain
I will not give into fear

Cause Lord, I know You re here
You will never leave me
You will always be the one
Who calms the raging sea
You will never leave me
You will always be the one
Who s holding onto me
Tough my heart is breaking
And my faith is shaking
Standing strong cause I believe
You have promised me, You ll never leave
You will never leave me
You will always be the one
Who calms the raging sea
You will never leave me
You will always be the one
Who s holding onto me
