

The Road I Walk

Kevin Flynn & The Avondale Ramblers

The ground beneath my feet
Is not on Easy Street
The blackened dust, the crooked stone
Nobody else around
My voice, the only sound
On I carry - on my own
Why I go this way I go
The hell if I know
Sometimes I wonder if it's wrong
But there's something in my heart
That tells me from the start
This is the road where I belong

Chorus

The road I walk is less than often traveled
Never paved in gold - it's always dirt or gravel
Although it's on the byway
It always will be my way
Another road just ain't for me

It's when I'm weary and
My legs can hardly stand
I'll think of other paths to take
One that's been walked before
A million times or more
And every step's a piece of cake
But I never could regard
A road that isn't hard
That's just the way 'tis, my friend
If that road suits you fine
Go your way, I'll go mine
We'll see what happens in the end (my friend)

Chorus

Another road just wasn't meant for me
