I See Stars

I can't be saved!
Turn up!
To the baneful beast in me!
All of your hate.
You're your own worst enemy!
You throw your pain into a bottle.
To numb yourself and realize the party's over!Who?
Who do I answer to when my blood thins out like twine?
Always searching for myself at the bottom of a bottle.
I wont be hard to find.This is not the path that you were made for.
Just take a look around.Just take a look around!
Get off the floor!
You were meant, meant for so much more!
Get off the floor!
You were meant for so much more.Who?
Who do I answer to when my blood thins out like twine?
Always searching for myself at the bottom of a bottle.
I wont be hard to find.This is not the path that you were made for.
Just take a look around.Just take a look around!
Get off the floor!
You were meant, meant for so much more!
Get off the floor!
You were meant for so much more.Get off the floor!
You were meant for so much more...I can't be saved!
Pick yourself up off your feet!
You'll never admit defeat!
Your eyes stare straight into me!
We're all our own worst enemies...
