I'm For Love

Hank Williams, Jr.

Mother's against drunk drivers
The Pope is against the pill
The Union's against their workers working against their will
The President's against the Congress
The Senate is against the House
People are against politicians
And I'm against cats in my houseBut I'm for love
And I'm for happiness
And I'm for 'If you don't like it, cant you just let it pass?'
And I'm for turning off the news and turning down the lights
Cause I'm for nothing else but me and you tonightThe city's against the county
The county's against the state
The state is against the government
And the highways still ain't paved
The banker's against the farmer
The farmer's against the wall
Doctor's against me smoking
And the devil's against us allBut I'm for love
And I'm for happiness
And I'm for 'If you don't like it, cant you just let it pass?'
And I'm for turning off the tube and turning down the lights
Cause I'm for nothing else but me and you tonightThe cops are against the robbers
The laws are against the cops
Justice is against the system
And some people are blowing their tops
The horse is against the automobile
The bus is against the train
The train is against the jumbo jet
And I'm against fishing in the rainBut I'm for love
I'm all for happiness
And I'm for 'If you don't like it, cant you just let it pass?'
And I'm for turning off the tube and turning down the lights
And I'm for nothing else but me and you tonightHey, I'm for love
I'm all for happiness
And Im for 'Not looking for something to make us mad'
I'm all for turning off the news and turning down the lights
And I'm for nothing else but me and you tonight

Songwriters

Jr. WilliamsPublished by
BOCEPHUS MUSIC, INC.

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/