Love Conquers All

Anthony Mossburg

Well I am not afraid
To fall in love
And through push and shove
I'll stay

And I am not afraid
To give my heart
Every part, away
No I am not afraid

And I am not afraid
To close my eyes
And not walk by sight
But by faith

And I am not afraid
To show my scars
And let those wounded hearts, be seen
No I am not afraid

[Chorus]
No I am not afraid
To face tomorrow
And I am not afraid
That I will fall
Because I know that I have been forgiven
Because love conquers all
Don't you know that
Love conquers all

So I am not afraid
To sing out loud
And make a joyful sound
Of your name

And I am not afraid
To break these chains
And release my guilt, and shame
No I am not afraid

[Chorus]

So I am not afraid
To fall to my knees
Cause there's this pounding heart
It beats

I know you're not afraid
To lay your life
Down for mine
And now I'm free
Oh now I'm free
Oh now I'm free
