Where I Belong

Push Play

the day's we spent together the night's will last forever but all good things must come to and end senior year is almost over and i never felt closer to my friends that i can't count on depend's on and on ill say the more i stay the longer u wait cause california is so far away but day by day i feel the same and i dont want us to fade away so in miles and miles and miles away the spot's that we may never race it say's we may be together could we be friend's forever with promises and tears in our eye's we bit our lips and said goodbye knowing we may never meet agian oo will meet agian i promise well meet agian the more i stay the longer u'll wait cause california is so far away but day by day i feel the same but i dont want us to fade away i promise you ill follow through and all the thing's u said i do butmost the time it wont work out that way the harizion seem's to fade away it's part of now than yesterday cause when u walk is where i do the more i stay the longer you wait cause califronia is so far away but day by day i feel the same and i dont wanna us to fade away the more i stay the longer u wait cause california is so far away but day by day i feel the same and us to fade away just fade away
