Damn Good

The Playmates

Hey man you better get a grip
Or you'll be fallin' off the edge real fast
You find yourself a lady and you're bending over backwards
While she's passin' time spending all of your cash
Hey bud open your eyes and see the big lie before it's too late
You better get your shit together take a look at changing weather
Or you'll be caught in a downpour of hate
You'll never know the reason why you feel in love
It's the nature of the beast I guess or a message from above
So take a look around you and see what's happening
'Cause this woman's gonna take you down
Take you down to the very end
But she's so damn good that it's downright bad
She's a devil in a blue dress gonna drive you mad
Damn good, damn good, so damn good it's the best you ever had Hey pal don't mean to criticize 'bout the way you're livin' your life
But you know they say that love is blind and it's always hard to read between the lines
You'll never know the reason how this came your way
It's message from below my friend there's gonna be hell to pay
But take a look around you and see what's happening
'Cause this woman's gonna take you down
Take you down to the very end
But she's so damn good that it's downright bad
She's a devil in a blue dress gonna drive you mad
Damn good, damn good, so damn good it's the best you ever had
I hope you wake up before the nightmare begins
'Cause there's a timebomb ticking, ticking in your...
Ticking in your...ticking in your hands
But she's so damn good that it's downright bad
She's a devil in a blue dress gonna drive you mad
Damn good, damn good, so damn good it's the best you ever had
