

Right Love, Wrong Time

Anuheia

I was your lady in red that Saturday night
And a fire ignites under the full moonlight
In spite of the diss it was lust at first sight
Asked you for the time it was wrong but it seemed right
Feeling the buzz long after the bar
You come to my show tell me I'm a star
Knowing I'm going we're knowing we shouldn't be doin this tonight
When logic says no mind and body says it's oh so right

ooooh
so many sides to him so many marks on the wrong side of the line
ooooh
I can't resist him there's something about him I can't push aside

Cause it's the right love at the wrong time
Guess we'll have to wait until the summer time
Cause it's the right love at the wrong time
Why'd we have to meet each other in our prime
Cause it's the right love at the wrong time
You're sure gonna be a fun tree to climb
but it's the right love at the wrong time

So you don't have a phone
You got a punk undertone
The tallest surfer I've known
And your hair's overgrown
You have holes in your shoes
You're always down to cruise
Only make enough money to pay for our booze
But do you even realize you have stars in your eyes
Potential to dive into your wildest prize so baby
Pick a skill and run for it run Cause the sun's gonna rise and I just wanna have fun

So many sides to him so much trouble just to make our lives intertwine oooooh
He's so persistent there's something about him I can't leave behind

Cause it's the right love at the wrong time
Guess we'll have to wait until the summer time
Cause it's the right love at the wrong time
Why'd we have to meet each other in our prime
Cause it's the right love at the wrong time
You're sure gonna be a fun tree to climb
but it's the right love at the wrong time

I only want what you want
So keep me on the up and up and everything will be alright
Trust in me and I will trust in you Because I do believe that this is worth so much more
This distance is a temporary state
But the right love is always worth the wait tick tock tick tock tick tock around the clock Can't get you out of my head no it won't stop tick tock tick tock tick tock it won't stop

And feels so good

Cause it's the right love at the wrong time
Guess we'll have to wait until the summer time
Cause it's the right love at the wrong time
Why'd we have to meet each other in our prime
Cause it's the right love at the wrong time
You're sure gonna be a fun tree to climb
but it's the right love at the wrong time
