Dream Glasses Off

Lisa Germano

Hey, again
I thought that you were my friend
Take the dream glasses off
And see againLike before
When I opened the door
And let the happiness in
And closed againSomeday someone
Is gonna see you
Someday someone
Is gonna come throughDeath decides
When to open your eyesGo away
Would you just go away
Go away, go away
They go awaySomeday someone
Is gonna love you
Someday someone
Is gonna need you, tooAnd they said
When you empty your head
You can actually see
Without your sightHey, again
I thought that I was this friend
Took the dream glasses off
And saw againSomeday someone
Is gonna come through
They're all out there
Waitin' for you, too
