

Dream Glasses Off

Lisa Germano

Hey, again
I thought that you were my friend
 Take the dream glasses off
 And see againLike before
 When I opened the door
 And let the happiness in
And closed againSomeday someone
 Is gonna see you
 Someday someone
Is gonna come throughDeath decides
 When to open your eyesGo away
 Would you just go away
 Go away, go away
They go awaySomeday someone
 Is gonna love you
 Someday someone
Is gonna need you, tooAnd they said
 When you empty your head
 You can actually see
 Without your sightHey, again
I thought that I was this friend
 Took the dream glasses off
And saw againSomeday someone
 Is gonna come through
 They're all out there
 Waitin' for you, too
