

Parachute (Wahlstedt Remix) [~Keepers Squad~]

Otto Knows

One by one we see the sun
Feel the day has just begun
Trembling lights up in the clouds
All we need to feel is now as we work
Get me a parachute, take me to the sky
Just take me to the blue before I start to collide
Get me a parachute, take me to the sun
We'll be a miracle, to turn this world into one
Get me a parachute
One by one we see the sun
Feel the day has just begun
Trembling lights up in the clouds
All we need to feel is now as we work
Get me a parachute, take me to the sky
Just take me to the blue before I start to collide
Get me a parachute, take me to the sun
We'll be a miracle, to turn this world into one
Get me a parachute, take me to the sky
Just take me to the blue before I start to collide
Get me a parachute, take me to the sun
We'll be a miracle, to turn this world into one
Get me a parachute
Get me a parachute, take me to the sky
Just take me to the blue before I start to collide
Get me a parachute, take me to the sun
We'll be a miracle, to turn this world into one
