My Only Worry

Arthur Sharpe

In the shoddiest cove I'll envelop the rest I feel awake enough to tell this it was a seminal plan a plan to pull you through I'm a ball of stress an irretrievable mess I had an angel smothered in malice she said you terrible man I said I did it for you

I had a lioness round for tea today she said she was the only one coming I said all the better for me then I scarpered out well she chased me down and she toppled my crown and said she was never becoming such a convivial plea I will shut my mouth

A hazardous occupation a typical point of view a villainous accusation
I don't care for you
I don't care for you

My only worry is a vicious infection my only worry is I've lost direction my only worry has come to be that I'm a worrier too I guess a humble thing can change so drastically and turn so proud it was a thunderous mob but they're just so beautiful well I sailed to the neighbouring island where you used to live and I used to visit you in your raggedy shack on your raggedy plain and I yearned to be a child again and I yearned for you to be the same I don't wanna go back to my country lane

I'll address the nation I'm sure I'll affect a few a criminal demonstration executed right on cue...

Lyrics Submitted by www.facebook.com/arthurincolour/ï»¿ Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/