Time Is a Healer

Die Happy

Hand on my shoulders
Free drinks in my hand
All the understanding
All the best from my friends
You will get over it
Of that I'm sure
Just find another reason
I pay more attention
Everywhere I go
All cities, all centuries
Reading tarot
Looking just everywhere
Where is the glow?
The only logic reason
To live forTell me why it hurts
Why can't I turn it into laughter?
Know that time should heal my painMy heart is back together
With bandaids I found
Drinking lots of vodka
Untill I pass out
Will I get over it?
Not really sure
Just find another reason to live for
To live forTell me why it hurts
Why can't I turn it into laughter?
Know that time should heal my pain
Tell me why I'm lost?
There's no question
And there's no answer
Know that time should heal my pain
