

In Another World

Dwight Yoakam

In another time and place
There awaits a sweet embrace
Where stains on hearts just fade away
Replaced with hopes lost from today
Bound by love that never strays
In another world
Weâ€™ll be okay

That doubt and sadness in your eyes
Will disappear with tears once cried
Then broken dreams that went so wrong
In empty space where life moved on
With every hurt that ached so long
In another world
Theyâ€™ll all be gone

Your tortured heartâ€™s
Soft anguished pleas
Rescued by love
Shall be set free
With every hurt that ached so long
In another world
Theyâ€™ll all be gone

Then every hurt that ached so long
In another world
Theyâ€™ll all be gone

Your tortured heartâ€™s
Soft anguished pleas
Rescued by love
Shall be set free
With every hurt that ached so long
In another world
Theyâ€™ll all be gone
