

Will I Ever Understand You

Berlin

Mirror, mirror tell me beware
Coldly revealing all the faces I wear
From a teasing smile for boys on the street
To a shifty glance for eyes looking too deep
Feel the light as it shines so bright
Will I ever understand you?
Reach inside the truth is alive

Will I ever understand you?
Always fighting to find out why
But it seems the answer fades into a white flag sky
Feel the light as it shines so bright
Will I ever understand you?
