Wrecking Ball

Lifehouse

I'm alone, wandering in your space
Waiting for a sign of life
Looking so out of place
And then you whisper to me
It doesn't matter what you say
I feel the weight against the wind
The demolition of me cavin' in
And I'm always swingin' on this wrecking ball
While you're building up and breaking down my wall
You push and pull and give and take
And through it all, I gravitate to you
And I'm a fool, a mechanical tool for you
'Cause you've got all the switches and
Levers to blow my cool
And when you know I'm broken
That's when you come shinin' through
You set me up to knock me down
And leave my shattered pieces on the ground
And I'm always swingin' on this wrecking ball
While you're building up and breaking down my wall
You push and pull and give and take
And through it all, I gravitate to you
You set me up to knock me down
And leave my shattered pieces on the ground
And I'm always swingin' on this wrecking ball
While you're building up and breaking down my wall
You push and pull and give and take
And through it all, I gravitate to you
