Nothing to Die For

Overkill

Old enough to know better, too young to care
Bent of self destruction no one aware
If I had a reason I could make it work for me
If I had an answer I wouldn't be so hard to seeFeelin' all just the same
Feelin' all like a pain
No I'm not down the drainMake my own decisions just to go away
Take the consequences just not today
Got enough reasons still not workin' for me
Got all the answers still so hard to seeSomethin' is confusin' me
Somethin' is abusin' me
Somethin' is refusin' me, lifeLet me live
(I'm gonna fight for)
I wanna give
(I feel to cry for)
I've been through hell and back so many times beforeTake me there
(I've given a life for)
I don't care where (Give me tight for)
And show me why there's nothin' to die for tooOld enough to know better too dead to change
Went in with a full deck goin' out deranged
I had all the reasons tried, it didn't work for me
I had all the answers I was too blind to seeMirror man in my eye
Mirror man gonna cry
Mirror man make you dieLet me live
(I'm gonna fight for)
I wanna give
(I feel to cry for)
I've been through hell and back so many times beforeTake me there
(I'm in a trap for)
I don't care where
(I'm in a tight war)
And show me why there's nothin' to die for too
