A Stranger on Earth

Marianne Faithfull

Some fools don't know what's right from wrong
But somehow those folks belong
Me, I try for all I'm worth
But I still remain a stranger on this earthSome people gloom, other folk cry
Me, I have to struggle to keep alive
Ever since the day of my birth
I've been a stranger, stranger on this earthI try to be what all folks should Forgetting the bad and doing good
But no matter how I try
My troubles always multiplyNow, I've been doing the best I can Ever since life began
Some day when I prove my worth
I won't be a stranger on earth
