Punch You in the Face

Ultraviolent

Was there ever a time
That you were betrayed
Face first in the dirt
And it filled you with rage
When your trust was broken
And your pride was stained
You wanted to lash out
And you did
You fought for a change
But it never changed
What you did was for nothing
And it all is the same
You're nothing but a pawn
You're playing the game
You waited for salvation
But it never came

Iâ€™m breaking down
My hands feel tied
I'm breaking down
I'm on a one way ride
Iâ€™m breaking down
System overload
Iâ€™m breaking down, so far
And I lost control
Fuck it

My angerâ€™s showing
Yet it never sees me through
My angerâ€™s showing
And itâ€™s all over you
My face is getting hot
Vengeance is my friend
It's the ultimate test, but I
Have to get revenge

I was born to live
I lived to lose
My time is now

Youâ€™re overdue
I was born to live
I lived to lose
My time is now
Youâ€™re done for
