

The Right to Love (KCRW - Live from Malibu PAC)

k.d. lang

My love and I ask little of the world
The right to sigh together in the rain
And walk with heads up in the sun
And share our joy and our pain And yet they said that we were wrong
We hadn't the right to our love
That this love was shameful to see And yet we treasured our love
And so we go our solitary way
Indifferent to the cold unfriendly stares
Indifferent to the whispered talk We don't care at all
We have all we need
As long as we can be together
