Mind Machine

The Jellyrox

I don't even recognize,
What I've disguised myself to be,
My heart is wound up like a toy,
Of endless paranoia crawling through meSend me a dream,
Make me believe,
There's a light,
Just beyond where I stand,
I fell down a hole,
That leads to my soul,
And I don't seem to,
Know where I amShut down my mind machine,
It's hard to find you,
When I'm still lost in me,
Sweet serenity,
I need you more,
Yeah, I need you more,
Than I need meI hold my breath a little longer,
Living underwater,
Has taught me to breathe,
I shut me eyes a little tighter,
Life without a light,
Has taught me to seeI've fallen asleep,
To dark melodies,
And I can't seem to wake up again,
I'm dying to the dead,
Of all I regret,
And I can't see the light at the endShut down my mind machine,
It's hard to find you,
When I'm still lost in me,
Sweet serenity,
I need you more,
Yeah, I need you more,
Than I need meShut down my mind machine,
It's hard to find you,
When I'm still lost in me,
Sweet serenity,
I need you more,
Yeah, I need you more,
Than I need meShut down my mind machine,

It's hard to find you,
When I'm still lost in me,
Sweet serenity,
I need you more,
Yeah, I need you more,
Than I need me
