Day Like Today

Out Of Eden

Woke up this morning, jumped out of bed
Hit my head on a lampshade and the clock said
That I'm running late so I'm rushing trying to get on my wayI get to my car and the gouge is on e
Get gas and I pay a dollar ninety-three
Got stopped by the cops 'cause I was speeding
Eighty-nine in a fifty-five, Lord, why me?On a day like today
All has gone wrong and my life seems crazy
Gotta hold on, smile on my face
'Cause I know the sun's gonna shine my wayOn a day like today
Look up at the sky, you know life's so amazing
And I know I will be okay
'Cause I know the sun's gonna shine my wayIt's days like this, there's a lesson learned
When I get up on the wrong side of the world
It's easy to dwell on my situation instead of every good thingBut I know I've been blessed, I gotta say thank you
And though there's stress and I'm so grateful
It's just a test he's more than able to see me through on a day
DayOn a day like today
All has gone wrong and my life seems crazy
Gotta hold on, smile on my face
'Cause I know the sun's gonna shine my wayOn a day like today
Look up at the sky, you know life's so amazing
And I know I will be okay
'Cause I know the sun's gonna shine my wayI know it wouldn't hurt to smile
It's not as bad as it could be, it will work out in a whileI know it wouldn't hurt to smile
It's not as bad as it could be, it will work out in a whileOn a day like today
All has gone wrong and my life seems crazy
Gotta hold on, smile on my face
'Cause I know the sun's gonna shine my wayOn a day like today
Look up at the sky, you know life's so amazing
And I know I will be okay
'Cause I know the sun's gonna shine my waySo I just hold tight, know that everything is alright
Gotta believe I will see the light
'Cause I know the sun's gonna shine my waySo I just hold tight, know that everything is alright
Gotta believe I will see the light
'Cause I know the sun's gonna shine my wayOn a day like today
All has gone wrong and my life seems crazy
Gotta hold on, smile on my face
'Cause I know the sun's gonna shine my wayOn a day like today
Look up at the sky, you know life's so amazing

And I know I will be okay
'Cause I know the sun's gonna shine my wayOn a day like today
All has gone wrong and my life seems crazy
Gotta hold on, smile on my face
'Cause I know the sun's gonna shine my wayOn a day like today
Look up at the sky, you know life's so amazing
And I know I will be okay
'Cause I know the sun's gonna shine my waySun's gonna shine, sun's gonna shine
Sun's gonna shine, sun's gonna shine my waySun's gonna shine, sun's gonna shine
Sun's gonna shine, sun's gonna shine my way
