

Looking for Someone (Live Version)

East India Youth

Looking for someone, looking for someone
I don't know where they are
Looking for someone, looking for someone
I don't know who they are
God I need someone, god I need someone
Hope they aren't very farNow I need something, now I need something
Just for me and no one else
I want something for myself
I want something for myselfThink I feel nothing, you think I feel nothing
You don't know how wrong you are
Now you feel something, now you feel something
Can't you let it open upLooking for someone, looking for someone
I don't know that you're the one
Looking for someone, looking for someone
Pretty sure you are the one
Once around and now you're gone
Once around and now you're goneThink I feel nothing, you think I feel nothing
You don't know how wrong you are
Now you feel something, now you feel something
Can't you let it open upLooking for someone, looking for someone
I don't know that you're the one
Looking for someone, looking for someone
Pretty sure you are the one
Once around and now you're gone
Once around and now you're gone
Once around and now you're gone
Once around and now you're gone
