

Lovers Come and Go

Owen

I meant what I said
You're too young to love me like you do
As those letters you penned
So heartfelt, so reverent
Only proved Lovers come and go
The good ones always know
How they're getting home I meant what I said
You're too sharp to get cut up by me Lovers come and go
The good ones always know the difference
Between being casual or a casualty
Lovers come and go
The good ones are incapable of faking it
Stop faking it - I know that you can't sing
