

Blown Rose

Blossoms

I made my wish a rose
Covered in old spangles, beside
A river froze, Felicia I miss youThe stately homes of England
How beautiful they stand
Lately it's a lonely love I know
Blown rose, goI made my wish a rose
Wrapped in desire, she cries
Let me know, Felicia where are you?The stately homes of England
How beautiful they stand
Lately it's a lonely love I know
Blown rose, goI'm aching with you
We're breaking, I plead
Don't go easily my love
FeliciaThe stately homes of England
How beautiful they stand
Lately it's a lonely love I know
Blown rose, goBut you say you don't feel it like I do
I'm so lost when
You say you don't feel it like I do
Crawl into my heart
Blown rose
Blown rose
Blown rose
Blown rose
