Quick, Before It Melts

Cinerama

And when you said: "I've got nothing on beneath this dress", that was such great flirting!
I usually find such candidness sort of disconcerting
But you said: "I don't wear underwear because it leaves a stripe
People sneer, but do you think I care? They're usually not my type!"
And soon we're reeling from the beer that we keep buying
You ask me what I'm doing here and I start lying You're wondering what is on my mind is it a one night stand?
You laugh and say: "Baby I'm not blind!" and then you squeeze my hand
But please, let's be quick before it melts
Please, let's just be quick before it melts
The next thing I know we're in the street and we're being sleazy
You ask me if I want to eat, but I'm too uneasy
You put your hand onto the very place my girlfriend's hand should be
You haven't exactly got the kind of face that invites honesty
But please, let's be quick before it melts
Please, let's just be quick before it melts
You said: "If it feels right I just might let you sleep with me tonight
And then tomorrow, if you do go, you have my word, no-one will ever know"
But please, let's be quick before it melts
Please, let's just be quick before it melts
You said: "It feels right so I just might let you sleep with me tonight
And then tomorrow, if you do go, you have my word, no-one will ever know"
