

Back Down the River

John Martyn

I know that we're gonna be together, you and me
For more than a rhyme or two, your time belongs to me
Rowing back down my river, chasing my tail to the sea
Rowing back down my river, trying my best to be me
Watching your crazy ways and all the lazy days
Digging you more and more the more I see your face
Rowing back down my river, trying my best to be free
Rowing back down my river, chasing my tail to the sea
Watching the simple things to help me grow along
Loving the note she bring to help me sing my song
Rowing back down my river, trying my best to be me
Rowing back down my river, singing my songs to the sea
I know that we're gonna be together, you and me
For more than a time or two, your rhymes belongs to me
