

Jump Out Of Your Car

Iglu & Hartly

She kept on walking and she never ever looked back

And you do know everybody in town knew that

She gonna take off, going to be a star

When there's nothing left she gonna jump out of your car

This is a little limerick
Of something that don't exist

Called love and the passion

They're coming together with action

I'm never hesitating with my words or my thoughts

I go on

Blasting through these doors

Just to show them what I got

I, got my hand motion into the sky

You got your, hands grabbing onto another lie

Now take it easy baby

You never forget where you're from

Swallow your pride

'cause everyone thinks they is number one

Some, people can love

Some people can only hate

Some people are deviant in the back of the face

It would take all the strength

Of an army loaded with guns

And all that it takes

Is an army of one

Now what you're telling me is this

Let me get it correct

'cause I'm a step up in this motherfucker

Dripping with sweat

I know a glimpse is better

Than never seeing at all

At least I know what to expect when all the leaves start to fall

She kept on walking and she never ever looked back

And you do know everybody in town knew that

She gonna take off, going to be a star

This is the motion of the ocean
And it's overflowing

This is the motion of the ocean
And it's overflowing

I gotta keep it up

Keep on going

Don't stop exposing myself
Out to the public
Got to make em love it
Gotta, make em hurdle over people to see
Me and my shiny gold hair
And my shiny white teeth
Eventually enchanted with their newly crowned king
They follow me with pictures of myself
They just ripped out the magazine
No time for autographs
I got places to be
Gotta race around the world
Until there's nothing to see
Like a helicopter
Spinning rotors floating in the sky
Your free girl

Go on and go on and give it a try.I see your asking what I got with a pocket full of holes

And we're the exact opposite
But we keep blowing smoke
So now tell me why you insist
On wasting my fucking time

Keep on searching round here for something you ain't gunna find

So lets take a step back
Remove our mask and ask
Is this the way we're gonna live
Keep on stepping over cracks

I know you try so hard to be what you want to be

But it ain't that

So I'm a say c'mon baby, go on a lay back.She kept on walking and she never ever looked back

And you do know everybody in town knew that
