Break the Silence

Sinner

[Mat Sinner / Igor Gianola]Locked up down in a hole
Rats came to parole
Black the darkest night
I was ready to fight
The time I hit the ground
But no one will ever break me downEven it's a mistake
We'll never break
There's no difference
What it takes
I will break the silenceA rebel has fallen down
A king has lost his crown
And we both ride the wind
In total disciplineEven it's a mistake
We'll never break
There's no difference
What it takes
I will break the silenceIn the darkest night
You will be my fight
And I'm tonight
I'm hunting the moonlight
I will break the silenceEven it's a mistake
We'll never break
There's no difference
What it takes
I will break the silenceIn the darkest night
You will be my fight
And I'm tonight
I'm hunting the moonlight
I will break the silence
