Beautiful

The Parlotones

Wish upon a falling star the passion patrol accept us for who we are We've gone and lost control, oh no
The outline of miracle required to be traced eliminate the need for thrills we all need to be saved today
And you are all beautiful and you are all magical
deserve to be adored
deserve to be adored
The science of all of this is a parodied poem avoid it with swinging fists Don't want to be alone, oh no There's romance in bitterness, say the borderline patrol, differentiate happiness, the borderline patrol
deserve to be adored
deserve to be adored
I tell you for free this is just formula this is just chemistry None of this is real to me
deserve to be adored
deserve to be adored
