

Licksore

Gwar

Lonely and crippled, she lives all alone
Stares out the window, no one on the telephone
Her only friend, a little Kitty Kat
Feeds it a lot, Kitty pretty fat Licksore, something to abhor
Kitty Kat don't wanna rise, Mommy's on the floor
Licksore, getting to the core
Kitty Kat is getting fat, tongue becomes a bore Mommy's got a problem, seems that Mommy's dead
Kitty's got no food, lick a hole in Mommy's head
Kitty loves Mommy, Kitty loves the taste
Kitty loves Mommy, Kitty loves Salami Hold is getting bigger, head fits inside
Sucking at the nostrils, feasting on the fucking eyes
Kitty pretty hungry, Kitty must sup, Kitty pretty lonely
Mommy won't get up, Mommy won't get up
Mommy won't get up, Mommy won't get up The landlord comes by, the tenants are mad
They want to know why the smell is so bad
He beholds in horror, the ever-widening gash
But before he calls the cops he looks around for cash Licksore has become bloody pothole
Licky lap at brain filled bowl
Licksore, something to abhor
Mommy won't get up
