Who Am I

Vanessa Amorosi

Bitter place
Still I stay
Holding onto memories
That can never be replaced
I pick you up
You hold me down
Like all the tears I cried
That rushed to the ground
(CHORUS)
Who am I?
If you love somebody else
Through all the pain and all the tunnels
You found no way out
So ask
Who Am I
If my love hits off the floor
Wipe it up with another tear
But still I cry more
So life's cruel
I'm in denial
Never thought I'd walk down a road
That could lead me to nowhere
The colours I
Used to have
Now I'm nothing but a grey in life
No need to look here
(CHORUS)
Who am I?
If you love somebody else
Through all the pain and all the tunnels
You found no way out
So ask
Who Am I
If my love hits off the floor
Wipe it up with another tear
But still I cry more
(BRIDGE)
Now I know my love had failed
Couldn't keep you at home

Or keep you in my arms
You had to run
And so you ran from me
And all the time that I put in you

Instead of myself
Could have given it somebody else
And maybe it would be returned
But I gave it to you baby
I gave you all that I had
We used to be happy
Then your love ran away
In, out, out, in we go, love
Thought I'd never really known
Never really know, no
(CHORUS)
Who am I?
If you love somebody else
Through all the pain and all the tunnels
You found no way out
So ask
Who Am I
If my love hits off the floor
Wipe it up with another tear
But still I cry more
You and I have changed
We used to be happy
Then your love ran away (Then your love ran away)
You and I have changed
We used to be happy
Then your love ran away (We changed)
You and I have changed (You and I changed)
We used to be happy
Then your love ran away (If you love somebody else)
You and I have changed (You and I)
We used to be happy
Then your love ran away
You and I have changed
We used to be happy
Then your love ran away
You and I have changed
We used to be happy
Then your love ran away
You and I have changed
We used to be happy

Then your love ran away
