

A Thing About You

Tom Petty & The Heartbreakers

I'm not much on mystery
Yeah, you gotta be careful what you dream
I thought this might pass with time
Yeah, I thought I was satisfied But oh baby let me tell you, I got a thing about you
Baby let me tell you, I got a thing about you
It don't matter what you say
It don't matter what you do
I got a thing about you
I got a thing about you Somewhere deep in the middle of the night
Lovers hold each other tight
Whisper in their anxious ears
Words of love that disappear But oh baby let me tell you, I got a thing about you
Baby let me tell you, I got a thing about you
It don't matter what you say
It don't matter what you do
I got a thing about you
I got a thing about you Baby you own some strange control over me
Yeah it's so wild, it hypnotizes me
Yeah, yeah, yeah
Yeah, yeah, yeah Raise both hands
But oh baby let me tell you, I got a thing about you
Baby let me tell you, I got a thing about you
It don't matter what you say
It don't matter what you do
I got a thing about you
I got a thing about you I got a thing about you, oh, oh
Say oh honey, I got a thing about you
Oh baby got a thing about you
Oh, oh I got a thing about you
Oh baby I got a thing about you
Oh, oh I got a thing about you
Oh baby I got a thing about you
Oh, oh I got a thing about you
