

Life & Soul

Kim Wilde

Yeah, yeah, alright
Life and soul
They say, that it's a fact of life, we'll die
But I say, the fact of life is life
And as I breathe the air of another lonely day
There's something I've been meaning to say to you
I know, I let you down
(Trust in me)c
Didn't realize what I'd found
(Trust in me)
All I need is for you to know
Ooh, you're in my soul
Love is a lesson hard to learn
Pain is a fire that keeps on burning
Come back, baby
(I'm gonna give you)
Ooh, Ooh
Pride is a wall that we can climb
Baby, hold on together, we'll find
(Life and soul)c
Anyone who hurts you, hurts me too
And all I want is that life is good to you
And whether I am near or far away
I'm with you every, every day
I know, I let you down
(Trust in me)
Didn't realize what I'd found
(Trust in me)
All I need is for you to know
You're in my soul
Love is a lesson hard to learn
Pain is a fire that keeps on burning
Come back, baby
(I'm gonna give you)
Ooh, Ooh
Pride is a wall that we can climb
Baby, hold on together, we'll find
(Life and soul)
Love is a lesson hard to learn

Pain is a fire that keeps on burning
Come back, baby
(I'm gonna give you)
Ooh, Ooh
Pride is a wall that we can climb
Baby, hold on together, we'll find
(Life and soul)
Pure emotion can take us far away from here
We'll find a world where love has room to grow
Say you want to go
Life and soul
Life and soul
(You're in my soul)
Love is a lesson hard to learn
Pain is a fire that keeps on burning
Come back, baby
(I'm gonna give you)
Ooh, Ooh
Pride is a wall that we can climb
Baby, hold on together, we'll find
(Life and soul)
Love is a lesson hard to learn
Pain is a fire that keeps on burning
Come back, baby
(I'm gonna give you)
Ooh, Ooh
Pride is a wall that we can climb
Baby, hold on together, we'll find
(Life and soul)
Love is a lesson hard to learn
Pain is a fire that keeps on burning
Come back, baby
(I'm gonna give you)
Ooh, Ooh
Pride is a wall that we can climb
Baby, hold on together, we'll find
(Life and soul)
Trust in me
I'm gonna give you
Trust in me, trust in me
Life and soul
