

My Best Fiend

Bergman Rock

Where did it all go wrong?
From the age of 15 on, I was honest - honest, I was Half of my brain still knows
That someone has opened doors
That half of me still won't close
Well I want to know Whoa oh oh oh
Oh oh oh oh
I never want
I never wanted anyone
I never want
I never wanted anybody Where did it all get torn apart?
Got a shotgun by my side
You can make her laugh but you can't make her cry Waving goodbye to innocence
Am I that obvious to read?
Am I in love with my best fiend?
Well I want to know Whoa oh oh oh
Oh oh oh oh
I never want
I never wanted anyone
I never want
I never wanted anybody Whoa oh oh oh
Oh oh oh oh
I never want
I never wanted anyone
I never want
I never wanted anybody Woah oh oh oh
Oh oh oh oh
I never want
I never wanted anyone
I never want
I never wanted anybody Woah oh oh oh
Oh oh oh oh
I never want
I never wanted anyone
I never want
I never wanted anybody
