Fresh Oil, New Wine

Fresh Oil
New Wine
by Brandon
Roberson
I hear the sound of a nation awakening
I hear the sound of a people rising
I hear the sound of every stronghold breaking yess
I see the light of Your glory shining
And we won't miss
What you're doing through us
How you're building through us
And we won't resist
What you're doing in us
You're working in us
Fresh oil, new wine
A mighty move of God in our midst
And we won't miss
This mighty move
This mighty move in our midst
You're doing something great
Our eyes have never seen
You're doing a new thing
We fully embrace it Lord
Fresh oil, new wine
A mighty move of God in our midst
And we won't miss
This mighty move
This mighty move in our midst
I hear the sound
A sound of dry bones living
I hear the sound
The sound of living stones worshipping

I hear the sound
The sound of revival spreading
I hear the sound
The sound of Your Kingdom
The sound of Your Kingdom reigning Lord
You're doing something great
Our eyes have never seen
We fully embrace it Lord
Fresh oil, new wine
A mighty move of God in our midst
And we won't miss
This mighty move
This mighty move in our midst
We fully embrace it
