Woman to Hare

Inkubus Sukkubus

Woman to cat to hare and back Woman to cat to hare I shall go with care A woman with power may fool a man As a hare I shall go from his sight To most anywhere Racing with the wind behind me Chasing 'cross the fields of green Running with the speed a hare can Never shall this hare be seen A woman, not a hare, shall snare a man But the hare and the cat shall know Where'er he's at His secrets and his solitude shall not be his For a man with a plan and a mind I wish not to find I have watched many men in their beds as they lie As a cat I have sat and I know What I should not know They may think they are strong and are brave and they rule this world But with quiet and with magick and with hare They do not compare
