Permanent Sleep

Lowlife

I've battled to backwards and broke my neck
And I still don't quick
And I had to date
I get up slow you stop and smile
And I smile back
And you don't know why

So then we ticked for backwards there
But then you forgive me but never forget
You cut me deep, You cut me deep
You cut me deep for a permanent sleep

I give to you the years of life
And I turn my back
And you used your knife
You gave to me your pains and tears
You went through my head
I followed these years

You gave to me your pains and tears
You cut me deep, You cut me deep
You cut me deep for a permanent sleep
I hate...

I've battled to backwards and broke my neck
And I still don't quick
And I had to date
I get up slow you stop and smile
And I smile back
And you don't know why

I've saved my piece
And I began
To settle the dark row
The sun did you shone
You cut me deep, You cut me deep
You cut me deep for a permanent sleep
