

Clean Slate

Coco Montoya

Girl, I must confess
I really made a mess
Of loving you
But baby, even though
I know I hurt you so
My love is true

I just wanna start over
Please give me one more chance
I just got to try
To somehow make it right
I know I can, I know that I can

Just give me a clean slate
Let me wipe away all the mistakes
What I need is a new start
To find my way back into your heart
I know it's not too late
If you will let me have a clean slate

I know I promised you
That I would never do
The things that I've done, oh babe
It took a while to see
How much you mean to me
Girl, you're the only one

I'll prove my love to you
I'll righten every wrong
Girl, you're gonna see
Although I might be weak
My love is strong, so strong

Just give me a clean slate
Let me wipe away all the mistakes
What I need is a new start
To find my way back into your heart
I know it's not too late
If you will let me have a clean slate

I just wanna start over
Please give me one more chance
I just got to try
To somehow make it right
I know I can, I know that I can

Just give me a clean slate
Let me wipe away all the mistakes
All I need is a new start
To find my way back into your heart

Won't you let me have a clean slate?
Tell me, baby that it's not too late
I gotta find me a new start
Find my way back into your heart
Won't you let me have a clean slate?
