Under Your Spell

Primal Fear

I'm twisted in dreams, I won't forgive
Your secrets were safe so far as I discovered lies
First it hurts, I'm going insane
I'm slamming against the grainWhere is the faith, where is the trust?
I'm under your spell
Forgive me, I still believe
I'm under your spellI damn you for taking bad advice
I guess your time was gone as you want to burst my pride
Deep inside me, I feel save
I'm slamming against the grainWhere is the faith, where is the trust?
I'm under your spell
Forgive me I still believe
I'm under your spellDon't you think I'm staying any longer?
The price I paid is much too high
Your great deal of morality is overFirst it hurts, I'm going insane
I'm slamming against the grainWhere is the faith, where is the trust?
Where is the faith, where is the trust?
I'm under your spell
Forgive me, I still believe
I'm under your spell
