Magic Symphony

Blue System

Breaking down the fences
Breaking down the rules
The reason for my heartbeat
Mystery is a foolI talk to my dream
I hear a voice, it was calling
And I couldn't stop to steam
'Cause my wild horse was fallingGive me freedom in my dreams
Give me shelter, yes, it seems
Bleeding heartaches ever cry
I wanna rock you, baby, 'til I dieIt's a magic symphony
Baby, when you're lying next to me
I hear violins
You know what it means just for tonightI hear a symphony of love
I see the stars, the moon above
I hear your heart
I feel your touch deep down insideBreaking down the fences
Breaking down the rules
The reason for my heartbeat
Mystery is a foolI talk in my sleep
There was a mystical,devotion
I hear the rhythm hurting me
Unknown soldiers in devotionGive me freedom in my dreams
Give me shelter, yes, it seems
Bleeding heartaches ever cry
I wanna rock you baby 'till I die
