Mary J
Lyrics and music by Moran Levi

For him his Mary J is a whole world
She is the winter's hit and summer's cold
He doesn't start a day without her on board
For him his Mary J is a whole world

He met her first when he was young and bold
She is the greatest thing, so he's been told
She stops the time she is a real gold
For him his Mary J is a whole world

For her he'll give the very last thing he owns
He gives her all he has, his money and mind
He will stay behind for her love
For her he'll set his hands and heart on fire
He will give up on the people he loves
The life the he won for desire

Cause Mary J is fatal love
With her he feels that he is free like a dove
She fits his every need like one perfect glove
But Mary J id fatal love

He doesn't care to stay alone, no
He doesn't care to loos all that he knows
He keeps inhaling her refusing to grow
But Mary J will take his all

For her he'll give the very last thing he owns
He gives her all he has, his money and mind
He will stay behind for her love
For her he'll set his hands and heart on fire
He will give up on the people he loves
The life the he won for desire

Mary, Oh Mary

How much he need's you
Oh...
You cursed his life!

For her....
