

Where Is the Light?

The Sweetest Condition

Sometimes in my dreams,
I am flying over fields of green.
Sometimes in my head,
I relive all that I forget. You wish you knew what I know.
You wish you'd see what I see,
but it's too big a burden
for anyone to carryâ€” anyone but me. Sometimes in my head,
I am flying over fields of red. You wish you knew what I know!
You wish you'd see what I see hidden in the night!
