Doorsteps

Lodger

Smoking cigarettes at your doorsteps, looking like I don't care
Try to act younger but I'm four years older
Red stripes hanging on your hair

I'm no good for you (for you)
And you know it too

Games of gain fat in your redhead flat
Staring at the TV screen
Sweating cold turkey and a funny hat
Most annoying show you've ever seen

I'm no good for you (for you)
And you know it too
There's no limit what the next you can do

(ahahaaa ahahaa ahahaaa ahahaaa ahaahaha ahahaha ahaha)
I'm no good for you (for you)
And you know it too

Smoking cigarettes at your doorsteps
Sticking here like a gum
Another one aimless fight no one's got the right to turn your pink world blue

I'm no good for you (for you)
And you know it too
There's no limit what the next you can do

There's no limit what the next you can do(many times)
